Samoa is made of ten islands of which only the four largest islands are inhabited, Savaii, Upolu, Manono and Apolima.

Apia the host city of the Commonwealth Youth Games 2015 is the capital and seat of government and is located on the island of Upolu. Apia has an approximate population of 45,000 whilst Upolu has a total of around 130,000.

The annual Teuila Festival, a cultural festival will be held during the week of the youth games, which will provide some interesting, cultural entertainment and traditional games for supporters, officials and athletes alike. We invite and hope you will find time to watch some of these whilst here in Samoa.

There are four commercial banks and foreign exchange agents around Apia including multinational institutions like ANZ, Westpac, Western Union and local, National Bank of Samoa, Samoa Commercial Bank, Imex Money Transfer, Samoa Finance Money Transfer.

There are Handicraft, Fresh Produce, Fish and Flea Markets located in Apia as well as a stroll along the Apia seawall will take you restaurant and bars along the water front not to mention just past the main wharf/port is Palolo Deep, a Marine Reserve.

For further information please check out our Samoa Tourism Authority website: www.visitsamoa.ws or call into our Samoa Tourism Authority Information Fale (House) located in the heart of Apia opposite the Catholic Cathedral.

COMMONWEALTH YOUTH GAMES 2015 ORGANIZATION

The Commonwealth is an association of independent sovereign states spread over every continent and ocean. From Africa to Asia, from the Pacific shores to the Caribbean, the Commonwealth's two billion people make up thirty percent of the world's population and are of many faiths, races, languages, cultures and traditions.

The Commonwealth Games Federation (CGF) is the organization responsible for the direction and control of the Commonwealth Games and the Commonwealth Youth Games.

The vision of the CGF is to promote a unique, friendly, world-class Commonwealth Games and to develop sport for the benefit of the people, the nations and the territories of the Commonwealth, and thereby strengthen the Commonwealth. Since 2000, the CGF's mission has included ensuring the successful organization and celebration of the Commonwealth Youth Games (CYG) as a means of assisting in the development of sport throughout the Commonwealth.

Underlying every decision made by the CGF are three core values: HUMANITY (unifying) - EQUALITY (promoting) – DESTINY (giving all athletes a chance to realize their destiny). These values help to inspire and unite millions of people and symbolize the broad mandate of the CGF within the Commonwealth.
